Description

Communication is the center of all relationships, yet most of us are untaught in the dynamics of great communication skills. This course will teach you these skills. With practice, every relationship you have will be much more effective than it currently is, including your family relationships. Give yourself the gift of outstanding communication skills.

Course Objectives:

Academic:
As a result of the course, you will:

• List the three underpinnings of “win/win” negotiating.
• List the three stages of every negotiation.
• List at least four ways to gather information, particularly in a non-business setting.
• Chart the four personality styles.
• State the five characteristics of a successful negotiation.
• State at least five rules or principles of negotiating.
• State the meaning of at least five body language signals.
• State the effect of hand and arm movements on the effectiveness of your message.
• Discuss the five basic ways of relating to others, giving biblical examples of each.
• Identify the styles of relating you use in various situations.
• Quote I Peter 4:8 - 10.
• Discuss specific ways to give encouragement.
• Discuss the six basic skills needed to be an interesting conversationalist.

• Discuss the six keys for developing deep friendships.
• State a six-step procedure for handling frustrating situations in an assertive manner.
• Discuss the five dimensions of self-awareness.
• Discuss the Triple-A Model of assertiveness.
• List the five steps for dealing positively with criticism.

Attitudinal:
As a result of your application of the truths you learn in this course, you may recognize certain changes taking place in your attitudes.

• You will approach every negotiation and confrontation with the goal of coming to a win/win conclusion.
• You will only be satisfied that your goals have been met if others you are dealing with are equally satisfied.
• You will be more aware of your body language and the signals it is sending to your listeners.
• You will seek the most appropriate and positive way of relating to others in every situation.
• You will be aware of the effects that personality style has upon communication style and endeavor to understand the heart of the individual rather than just the words.
• You will be more aware of the positive in people and circumstances.
• You will look outside of yourself in your desire to put others at ease in your conversations.
• You will receive compliments as a tool to help you recognize the strengths God has given you.
• You will desire to become more aware of your feelings and find ways of expressing them in a godly manner.
• You will be grateful for the input of others into your life, even when it comes as assertiveness or criticism.
Behavioral:
If you apply the teaching of this course to your life, you will be changed. Some of these changes will be as follows:

- You will study and practice the skills of win/win negotiation at every opportunity.
- You will practice until you develop body language which is appropriate for a child of God in every situation.
- You will rely on the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to the inner needs and desires of those you relate to so that He may meet those needs through you, if He desires.
- You will become an encourager.
- You will graciously receive compliments.
- You will process your self-awareness prior to conversation and confrontation.
- You will practice the skills of a good conversationalist.
- You will receive assertiveness and criticism from others positively and with gratitude.

Course Texts:
Speaking the Truth in Love by Henry A. Virkler
The Secrets of Power Negotiating cassettes by Roger Dawson

Course Requirements:

NOTICE:
Most CLU courses require the study of at least three texts. We have chosen to limit your study in this course to one text and one cassette series. These two resources are packed with life-changing information and skills which everyone should develop. You are therefore exhorted to delve deeply into the assignments, taking your time and investing your energy into learning and growing as much as you can. These skills will enhance the quality of the rest of your life.

1. Classroom students must attend class faithfully.

2. Listen to the entire cassette series The Secrets of Power Negotiating by Roger Dawson a minimum of three times.

Standards for Grading Assignments

As indicated below, “C” or 2.0 level work is considered average. Leaders are not average people. You are therefore expected (required) to put forth the effort necessary to demonstrate at least “B” (3.0) level work or higher on all assignments which you submit. Any which do not will be returned to you with input from your instructor on how you can raise your grade to the expected level. A course grade will not be given until your assignments demonstrate that you have understood the material presented in the course and allowed your life to be transformed by the Spirit and the Word studied — the requirements for attaining a “B”.

Your individual assignments (notebooks, tests, reports) will be graded according to the following standards. These grades will be averaged together to determine your course grade. Remember, CLU is training leaders and leaders are above-average people. Your work will reflect that.

“D”  • Indicates barely passing work that is inferior to the average both in quantity and in quality.
     • Manifests a lack of initiative or sense of responsibility or both.

“C”  • Average work; either steady work of an acceptable quality, or work of a high quality which is uneven, irregular or fragmentary.
     • May be mechanically or outwardly correct but shows little reflection upon or personal assimilation of the material.

“B”  • Intelligently has fulfilled the requirements of this course.
     • Understands the subject matter presented and has applied it to his life in a limited manner but has not really made the truths his own.

“A”  • Grasped the material with thoroughness, industry and correctness of detail.
     • Made the material his own by thinking about it and integrating it, using originality, natural ability, and insight.
Christian principles, and, in fact, some of the ideas and examples presented are contrary to the high standards of honesty and integrity believers should hold to. Our use of this series should NOT be seen as an endorsement of any manipulative, deceptive or dishonest practice that may be taught or inferred.

That said, there is much good that can be learned from these tapes. Too often, Christians are not known for their tact or persuasive speech. Though converts are not made nor souls saved simply by our convincing words, “A word fitly spoken and in due season is like apples of gold in settings of silver” (Prov. 25:11 AMP). “A man has joy in making an apt answer, and a word spoken at the right moment — how good it is!” (Prov. 15:23 AMP).

Be sensitive to the impressions of the Holy Spirit, Who will let you know what is true and good (I Jn. 2: 27). Hold to the truth while rejecting anything less (Rom. 12:9).

3. Write a paper describing what you learned and ways you have changed as a result of the cassette series. Document your ways of handling negotiation and conflict at the beginning of the course and the results you achieved. Describe your efforts to become more effective and your successes and failures. Relate the teachings of the cassettes to biblical principles wherever possible. This paper is to be 3 - 5 typewritten pages, double-spaced, and is due in Lesson 12.

4. Carefully study Speaking the Truth in Love by Henry A. Virkler.

5. Complete the Exercises at the end of each chapter, as well as any that are within the chapters. These exercises will be submitted to your instructor for grading at the end of the course.

6. Achieve passing grades on all exams. The course objectives are the key to success on all tests.
