

THE301 – 4 credits

The Names and Attributes of God

Description:

In this course, you will explore the many names and attributes of God revealed in His Word. As you learn more about God, you will be encouraged to also get to know Him more, deepening and strengthening your personal relationship with Him as you meditate on all that He Is and wants to be in your life.

Note: This is a four-credit course and therefore requires more work than the normal three-credit course! One extra lesson has been added (making 13 lessons) to help normalize the workload, but you should be prepared to spend extra time on the assignments. Standards for Grading Assignments

As indicated below, "C" or 2.0 level work is considered average. Leaders are not average people. You are therefore expected (required) to put forth the effort necessary to demonstrate at least "B" (3.0) level work or higher on all assignments which you submit. Any which do not will be returned to you with input from your instructor on how you can raise your grade to the expected level. A course grade will not be given until your assignments demonstrate that you have understood the material presented in the course and allowed your life to be transformed by the Spirit and the Word studied — the requirements for attaining a "B".

Your individual assignments (notebooks, tests, reports) will be graded according to the following standards. These grades will be averaged together to determine your course grade. Remember, CLU is training leaders and leaders are above-average people. Your work will reflect that.

- "D"
 - Indicates barely passing work that is inferior to the average both in quantity and in quality.
 - Manifests a lack of initiative or sense of responsibility or both.
- "C"
 - Average work; either steady work of an acceptable quality, or work of a high quality which is uneven, irregular or fragmentary.
 - May be mechanically or outwardly correct but shows little reflection upon or personal assimilation of the material.
- "B"
 - Intelligently has fulfilled the requirements of this course.
 - Understands the subject matter presented and has applied it to his life in a limited manner but has not really made the truths his own.
- "A"
 - Grasped the material with thoroughness, industry and correctness of detail.
 - Made the material his own by thinking about it and integrating it, using originality, natural ability, and insight.

- Humble yourself and submit to God confessing any attitude of pride or self-sufficiency.
- Seek pure worship.
- Allow God to be sovereign and give you victory over the power of sin so you can walk in the righteousness of Jesus Christ.
- Be determined to trust and rest in an eternal, self-existing God who is omnipotent, all-knowing, everywhere present, unchanging, loving, just and good.
- Ask God to give you a revelation of His love and goodness, then by faith walk in it.
- Worship your God for His lovingkindness, compassion and favor.
- Turn more quickly to your God for comfort in sorrow.
- Submit to your God as Deliverer, Teacher and Guide of your life.
- Glorify and give pleasure to your Creator who formed you according to His will.

Course Materials:

What Everyone Needs to Know About God by Richard Booker

Lord, I Want to Know You by Kay Arthur

Getting to Know God by Nate Krupp

The Names and Attributes of God Student Notebook
(this white three-ring binder)

Course Requirements:

The student must:

1. Prayerfully read What Everyone Needs to Know About God, completing the exercises in the book as directed. Save them here in the “Exercises” section of the Student Notebook.
2. Prayerfully read Getting to Know God by Nate Krupp, answering the Study and Further Research questions to the best of your ability. Highlight and take notes as the Spirit speaks to you through the verses. Use the Meditation & Application sections to write down anything God wants to say to you specifically from what you are learning. Journaling will help move what you are learning from your head to your heart, so journal often about the verses you are meditating on. NOTICE: You will not be completing the Studies in the order they are found in the text. Instead, they will be used alongside the other two texts, providing Scriptural strength to the topics of the Booker and Arthur texts as much as possible. BE SURE TO FOLLOW THE ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE!

3. Prayerfully read Lord, I Want to Know You by Kay Arthur as assigned, completing all exercises found in the text. You may answer them in the book or on separate paper or on your computer. You are required to submit your answers to your instructor for grading. If you write them in your book, you will need to send your book in. It will be returned to you. If you answer on computer, you may simply email them to your instructor.
4. Earn at least a “B” on all Tests (not Self-Tests).
5. Write a paper with two parts:
 - a) Meditate on each of the Scripture passages you are to memorize for this course. These are carefully chosen and are crammed with glorious truths about your God. Some include a specific name or attribute or characteristic of God. Others infer these from the promises they offer. Discuss what each passage teaches you about the Lord God. Draw together truths from various lessons which are related to them. Journal about them. And discuss what effect knowing these things about your God has or will have on your life.
 - b) Select at least one but no more than three specific Names or attributes of God that are especially meaningful to you. As we go through different seasons of life and our needs change, God reveals different aspects of Himself to us. At the point you are at in your life right now, what about your God is most important, most meaningful, most comforting to you? Why? How has He expressed Himself to you at your point of need?

This paper is to be a minimum of five pages (total for both parts), maximum 12-point font. It is due in Lesson 13.
