The Theology of Knowing Graduate

Description:

Do you know how you know? Have you ever sat down and consciously examined your system for knowing what the truth is in any area? Have you ever thought about the possibility that God has a way that He wants you to learn the Truth, and that any other way might leave you in the dark?

That is the purpose of this course: to look at some of the standards we might have used in the past and ones we may embrace now to determine how reliable they are. But most importantly, we will meditate on the Scriptures to find out what God has to say about Truth and how it is known. You will have the opportunity to evaluate your personal paradigm in the light of the Word and give the Spirit a place to teach you a new one in which He is central. (Prerequisite: REN103/503 Communion with God)

Course Requirements:

NOTE: Save your answers into a digital document to be emailed to your instructor. Use Microsoft Word, Google Docs, any other word processor or even just save it as an email draft or in the Notes application of your mobile device. Handwritten work will be not be accepted without prior approval from your instructor.

The student must:

1. Carefully listen to or watch the entire teaching series “How Do YOU Know?” by Mark Virkler as assigned, taking notes.
2. Prayerfully complete the entire LEARN How Do YOU Know? as assigned. Write out all verses, answer all questions and complete all two-way journaling. The “Personal Application and Journaling” exercises at the end of each Chapter will be submitted to your instructor.
3. Prayerfully complete the entire How Do YOU Know? textbook as assigned. Only some of the exercises will be submitted to your instructor so read the instructions in each lesson carefully! NOTE: The full How Do YOU Know? Workbook is an in-depth examination of what the Bible teaches about “how one knows.” Mark Virkler meditated on 5,500 verses in preparation for writing the book, and he will guide you through a few thousand of them to see what approaches the Bible says we are to use in discovering Truth. The video sessions and LEARN are a distillation and practical explanation of the revelation he received. The full book is designed for you to allow the Spirit to give you revelation for yourself so that you may fully own it. It is Scripture-heavy and requires you to give the Spirit time to speak to you.

4. Prayerfully read the entire Sound Doctrine Through Revelation Knowledge text as assigned and answer the “Personal Application” questions at the end of each chapter. These answers will be submitted to your instructor. (Your instructor can be the person you share them with as you are told to do in the questions.)
5. Earn at least a “B” on the two tests.
6. Submit a paper describing the epistemology that the Lord has taught you and that you will use to discover Truth in the future. Biblically support your position. This paper is to be a minimum of three pages and is due in the final lesson.

Standards for Grading Assignments

As indicated below, “C” or 2.0 level work is considered average. Leaders are not average people. You are therefore expected (required) to put forth the effort necessary to demonstrate at least “B” (3.0) level work or higher on all assignments which you submit. Any which do not will be returned to you with input from your instructor on how you can raise your grade to the expected level. A course grade will not be given until your assignments demonstrate that you have understood the material presented in the course and allowed your life to be transformed by the Spirit and the Word studied — the requirements for attaining a “B”.

Your individual assignments (notebooks, tests, reports) will be graded according to the following standards. These grades will be averaged together to determine your course grade. Remember, we are training leaders and leaders are above-average people. Your work will reflect that.

- “D”
  - Indicates barely passing work that is inferior to the average both in quantity and in quality.
  - Manifests a lack of initiative or sense of responsibility or both.
- “C”
  - Average work; either steady work of an acceptable quality, or work of a high quality which is uneven, irregular or fragmentary.
  - May be mechanically or outwardly correct but shows little reflection upon or personal assimilation of the material.
- “B”
  - Intelligently has fulfilled the requirements of this course.
  - Understands the subject matter presented and has applied it to his life in a limited manner but has not really made the truths his own.
- “A”
  - Grasped the material with thoroughness, industry and correctness of detail.
  - Made the material his own by thinking about it and integrating it, using originality, natural ability, and insight.

Lesson One

Assignment to be completed:

NOTE: Save your answers into a digital document to be emailed to your instructor. Use Microsoft Word, Google Docs, any other word processor or even just save it as an email draft or in the Notes application of your mobile device. Handwritten work will not be accepted without prior approval from your instructor.

Listen to or watch teaching Session One. It would be wise to take notes as you do.

Complete Chapter One of the LEARN How Do You Know? notebook. Complete all “Personal Application and Journaling” exercises. These will be submitted to your instructor.

Read the Preface and Introduction of the How Do YOU Know? full workbook, and complete Chapters One and Two according to the instructions in the text. NOTE: This main workbook does not follow the order of the video sessions and LEARN chapters. Therefore, there will not be a direct correlation between the two parts of the course. However, they complement and build on each other so that by the end of the course, you will have a strong, solid foundation in biblical epistemology.

Assignments to be submitted to your instructor from How Do YOU Know? workbook: Chapter One “Group Activities” questions 4, 5, 6, 7; Chapter Two summaries from pages 9 and 13 plus journaling “Assignment” #3.

Prayerfully read Chapter 1 of Sound Doctrine Through Revelation Knowledge. Answer the “Personal Application” questions at the end of the chapter. These will be submitted to your instructor.
